INDEPENDENT LIVING SUPPORT INITIATIVE

Do you have a disability with low – moderate support needs?

Do you have ageing parents/carers?

The NSW Government, through Ageing, Disability and Home Care (ADHC) has recognized a need to provide a more flexible approach to accommodation support options.

If you are a person with a disability who wishes to live more independently, and you live with ageing parents or carers, then the “Independent Living Support Initiative” could be for you.

How will the “Independent Living Support Initiative” work?

Lifestyle Solutions will provide up to 35hours/week support to assist you move towards independent living arrangements through person centred planning, intensive living skills development and the development of effective support networks, including a circle of support.

Lifestyle Solutions are holding information sessions on:
